

APC Professional Programme: Terms and conditions for registration

- Access to the programme is contingent upon full payment of programme fees by 30 April 2019 or as per payment plan.
- No deferral will be permitted.
- Should a Candidate withdraw from the programme in 2019, they will not be refunded and will be required to re-register and pay the full fees should they elect to enrol for the 2020 presentation of the programme.
- No refunds will be made should a Candidate enrol but fail to complete the programme.
- The onus is on the Candidate to notify UCT of any change to contact information.
- The onus is on the Candidate to notify UCT of any change to their training contract information
- Any cost incurred as a result of the Candidate providing incorrect information, such as incorrect invoice details, will be for the Candidate's account
- Candidates who do not successfully complete a mandatory Professional Programme, will not be permitted by SAICA to write the APC exam in November 2019.
- Candidates, who are waiting for ITC results in March 2019, are encouraged to register for the APC Professional Programme and will receive a full refund should they not receive a pass mark and elect to deregister from the 2019 APC Professional Programme.
- A discount is offered to employers that commit to block bookings.
- Please ensure that you have read our terms and conditions around Personal Information.