Here's how we'll get there together

Welcome

from the Head of the College of Accounting

Dear Candidates

As the Head of the College of Accounting at UCT, it is my pleasure to welcome you to the ITC Preparatory Course, one of the College's suite of programmes specifically tailored to the professional education of trainee chartered accountants.

The vision of the College is 'to be a centre of excellence in professional accounting education'. It is our privilege to deliver the full suite of academic programmes - at undergraduate and postgraduate level, and preparatory programmes for trainee accountants sitting their professional examinations.

This year's course is premised on sustaining excellence and builds on the success of our previous programmes. I am encouraged by the positive response our programme received as well as the success of our candidates who wrote the ITC in 2019. Our team has been working hard to make sure that this year's candidates have an even better experience.

You get to write the ITC at a time when the accounting profession continues to navigate crisis. This is an exciting time for you - as future custodians of the CA(SA) qualification, much will be expected of you. This resonates with one of the pillars that underpins our vision, which is to prepare leaders who have a firm grasp of ethics.

I have full confidence in the team to prepare you well for the SAICA ITC examination. My hope is that you will excel and make a meaningful contribution to the accounting profession.

Prof Goolam Modack

Student Testimonials

Don't just take our word for it - take theirs

Great assistance and support and very good material.

Really enjoyed the “bigger Picture” and exam technique approach.

I believe to have gained exposure to a number of different scenarios, which helped me to apply principles to those different types of scenarios.

High-level notes are invaluable - Tutorial questions are well thought out and planned to give maximum scope for revision.

Couldn't rate the course more highly! Great summaries within the books and good tutorial questions.

The material was on point and made difficult principles easy to understand.

Great resources made available to us, great communication from lecturers and course managers. I based the majority of my studying on the content provided by the BC, it was very helpful.

The notes for certain sections were very helpful and the questions. The VLE is extremely helpful including being able to view other questions and answers that you may not have thought of. The book style of the course notes made it much easier to handle and keep things together in an organised manner.

Having the lectures and course material available on the online platform helped especially when taking off from work to spend a solid 8-9 weeks studying was not an option.

The course notes that I was able to read through in order to recap on specific situations. Also, the tutorials were very good and helped me practice my exam technique. The online chat rooms and Mock exams were very helpful.

The style and variety of tutorial questions that were given in helping getting exam fit together with the excellent notes that were given on each module were the aspects of the course I enjoyed the most.

I thoroughly enjoyed the lectures. As someone who studied through UNISA via correspondence it was nice to have that contact with a lecturer. I also enjoyed the mock exams.

Course Components

Online learning website

Access to our interactive online learning website that acts as a communication tool between the academic team and Candidates.

Two-hour contact lectures for each of the core subjects

The contact component of the course is delivered through a lecture cycle at various cities throughout South Africa. The cities included in this lecture cycle are:

- Cape Town
- Johannesburg
- Durban
- East London
- Port Elizabeth

Contact lectures will focus on subject specific exam technique.

Recorded content - concept videos

In addition to the 8 hours of contact sessions, recorded technical content in the form of 12 to 15 minutes concept videos will also be made available to candidates.

The concept videos focuses on fundamental principles, technical updates, new syllabus developments, guidance on how to approach ITC based questions, and techniques related to work that candidates need to complete between the commencement of the course in early January 2020.

These concepts were selected on the basis of being technical concepts that candidates often struggle to grasp and that can prevent them from progressing in their studies.

These concept videos will be available to candidates on USB and online through our online learning website.

Recordings of the contact lectures for recap

Available online through the online learning website. This allows Candidates the flexibility and accessibility needed to work where and when they choose. Videos of these lectures will be made available mid-December 2019. Candidates can then review in their own time and at their own pace. The accessibility of the online content will benefit Candidates who are not able to attend the lectures, as well as those Candidates who were present at the lectures but who would like to revisit concepts to ensure understanding.

Comprehensive and balanced tutorial questions

The tutorial pack has a very broad coverage and focuses on the type of questions that are asked in the ITC. Tutorials are ranked in terms of difficulty levels. ITC-type questions include annotations and common pitfalls, highlighting common errors and areas where previous Candidates struggled in.

Comprehensive course notes

The notes have been structured to focus on the following:

- A syllabus overview of the core SAICA subjects
- Critical points
- Common pitfalls and problem areas
- Exam technique

Study programme

The course notes and tutorial questions for each subject module is divided into various study days which is synchronised into a course calendar and study programme. Each study day sets out various course notes, which candidate should read, and the tutorial questions that should be completed. Each study day has at least 3 hours of tutorial questions available to complete.

Academic support questions

The academic team will provide academic support through email, telephone and the online discussion forum for the duration of the course. A designated Course Coach will be available on email and telephone to provide administrative support

Self-evaluated simulated ITC exams

A simulated ITC examination is available in January 2020 as a “Mock ITC”. Feedback on the simulated ITC exams is communicated through the VLE.
